
A-C-T
Like A Kid
AND
T-H-I-N-K
Like A Parent

A Tell-All Book For Kids On What
Parents Really Think About Them

What All Good Parents Need For Their Kids To Know, Learn And Understand

The Secret Knowledge Of Adults That Gives All Kids The Upper Hand

Katherine Shears
C. S. Whitehurst

Authors C. S. Whitehurst and Katherine shears

Copyright
2016
Disclaimer

All rights reserved. This publication has been and is designed for the purpose of providing general type information regarding all the subject matter considered and covered. The author and authors does not at all assume any kind of responsibility for and does specifically disclaims all and any type of liability resulting as of or from the actual use or application in itself of the actual information contained literately in this particular book. The basic information found in this written publication is definitely not intended to function or serve anyone as legal type advice related in and to individual situations. Also and furthermore, the authors or author does clearly not have control in and over and really does not pretend or assume any type of responsibility for any and all third party internet websites and any of their content. In fact no actual part of it or this publication may actually ever be reproduced and or transmitted with in or within any form that is or by actually any means, written, mechanical or be it electronic, firmly without the absolute written permissions of the authors or author. This literary electronic or audio book is clearly a creative work of the authors or author based experience and general opinion. All references to streets, names, personages, people, places, incidences and titles clearly are product that are the items of the authors or author imagination. Any and all similarities to actual resemblances and events, locations, people, both dead and alive, is purely coincidence. All registered trademarks; trademark and service marks were and are the property of the respective owner or owners in full.

Manufactured in the U.S.A.

Dedication

This Book is dedicated to all children, both young and old. Our wish is to educate and illuminate both you and them with a clear view into some of the thoughts, feelings, wishes, hopes and struggles of all good parents. In the ever loving memory of Aunt Roberta, Aunt Betty-Jean, Aunt Eitha, Cousin Marvell, Uncle Leon, Uncle Alonzo, Uncle Gerald, Uncle Jeff, G.P. Bud, G.P. Alvin, G.G.P. Aaron and G.G.M. Laura. A. Choice you are truly missed, loved and never forgotten.

C. S. Whitehurst Acknowledgments

Firstly I would like to give thanks to God and all that God has used and touched to get me this far, my mother, my father and all those responsible for my care and upbringing.

Next I would like to thank my wonderful grandmothers, Grandma Cassie and Grandma Ann, my namesakes, who have always showered me with love, kindness, encouragement and acceptance. You are truly the wind that lifts me up higher and higher everyday.

To my grandfathers both physical and spiritual, Grandpa Scotty, Grandpa Alvin and Grandpa Alfonso, thank you for your compassion, patience, kindness, discipline and, of course, for siring generations of people that ultimately led to me being born and becoming the person I am today.

To my Uncles George, Paul, Charles, Jeff, Clarence, Johnny, Dennis, Ronland and all my uncles' children, thanks for the acceptance, support and always showing me love whenever we are together.

To my aunts Beverly, Ree, Vanessa, Zette, Carolyn, Gladys, Melinda, Myrtle, Bridgette and all my aunt's children, thanks for the accommodations, the soul food and your goodness which is food for the soul.

To my cousins, Brittany, Crystal, Ashley, Tora, Jamal, Tyler, Javal, Jessica, Lil Jeff, Senita, Nichole, Erika, Gelani, Ethan, Raven, Robin, Robert, Gene, Bae, Chastity and Lil Charles, Quincy, Westley, Gerald, Thomas, Derwyn, I would say thanks for always making me feel right at home.

To each of my other mothers, a huge and deep thanks to each of you for looking out for me when I was unable to look out for myself. And also to Cassinique and Amanda, you are the roots through which the tree of my life gains strength and meaning. We will always be family.

And for overseeing my ventures, very special thanks goes out to A. Bishop, G. parker, K. tong, E. Nash, V. terry, Chris Chan, Ron, Wayne, Eric, H. Covington, K. Mchenry, G. Harley and the bunch.

Katherine Shears
Acknowledgments

Foremost I would like to acknowledge and thank the Supreme Creator and author of my life. Through his divine guidance I have been blessed to meet, come to know, and relate to some of the most interesting, inspiring, loving, creative, humble, strong-spirited, and beautiful people in this world. These interactions have helped to mold myself into the person I am today and will continue to inspire me to fulfill my destiny.

I sincerely express thanks and appreciation to my parents/grandparents *Aaron & *Laura/*James & Gladys; My soul-mate Russell; My siblings Candice, Tamika, Michelle, and Travis; My children Stephanie, Senita, Lawrence, Lauryn, and Yunique; My Grandchildren Jovan, Syh'ir, and Tealeah; All of my beautiful nieces and nephews; My Aunts and Uncles as well as my host of cousins; my coauthor C. S. Whitehurst; and my mentor/motivational coach Christopher Shears.

My extended families the Allen's, Carrera's, Jarvis', and Jones'; my 2nd mothers/grandmothers *Elaine Wilson, *Sheila Carrera, *Irene (Baby) Edwards, and *Betty Moore; my 2nd fathers *Thomas Formby, *Calvin Henry, Othniel, David, and Gary; my sisters from other mothers Deasia, Nickey, Tracy, Melinda, Bunni, Delores, *Kendella (Kim) Preston and *Maria Laboy; my brothers from other mothers Rodney, Kevin, and Barrett.

Finally, the professional people I've encountered who went above and beyond their positions to help me in many different ways. My appreciation and gratitude for you is immense: Carmen Hernandez, Annett Bruwell, Wanda Gaddis, Shawnee Benton-Gibson, Kevin McAllister, Gloria Rojas, Gwendolyn Thompson, Barbra Hayes, Michael Evans, Santosh Iyer, Arun Kaushal, and Santosh Raja.

To each and every person named here and to those whom I may have failed to mention; I thank you for your contributions and thank God for the blessing of having you in my life
*Gone but never forgotten Sleeping In Peace....

Table Of Contents

Part One: A Welcome To The Good And Smart Kids

Introduction 14

Part Two: The Way Parents Think About Their Kids

1) What Should Kids Know About Their Parents And Guardians? 23

2) What Have Parents Learned From Years Of Parenting Kids? 27

3) How Are Parents Thinking? 37

4) What Forces Motivate Parents? 41

5) How Differently Do Parents See Than Their Kids? 45

6) What Do Parents Need From Their Kids? 49

7) What Is The Actual Goal Of Parenting Kids? 54

Part Three: Why Do Parents Do Things The Way They Do?

8) What Is Behind Your Parents Parenting Skills? 62

9) Firstly, Can Your Parents Trust Their Kid? 66

10) Why Do Parents Trust Some kids And Not Others? 70

11) Do Parents Really Show Their Kids Favoritism? 73

12) Is Being A Mommy's Or Daddy's Boy Or Girl A Good Thing? 77

13) When You Answer "Whatever", "I Don't Know" And "Nothing". 80

Part Four: Understanding Your Parents

14) What As A Kid Is It To Understand Your Parents? 88

15) How Are Parents Made? 92

16) Are Your Parents To Be Feared? 95

17) Are All Parents Equal As Parents? 99

Part Five: Keeping Your Parents Happy With You?

18) The Point Of Doing Chores. 106

19) The Point Of Good Hygiene And Grooming. 109

20) The Point Of Eating Smart. 112

21) The Point Of Learning To Negotiate. 114

22) The Point Of Good Communication. 117

23) The Point Of Having Your Own Mind. 1 2 0

24) The Point Of Getting Good Grades. 1 2 2

Part Six: Helping Your Parents To Help You.

25) Your Parents Won't Give Up And You Won't Give In. 1 2 9

26) If You Are Asking On The Day Of The Event, It's Too Late. 133

27) Parents Like Common Sense And Standards, So Get Both. 1 3 6

28) Earning Your Parent's Respect. 140

29) Try To Save Up For What You Want. 143

30) Don't Let Your Texting, Gaming, Blogging And Music Get The Blame. 145

Part Seven: The Universal Parent Playbook: Win Every Time.

31) What You As A Kid Should Do Before Asking For Anything. 152

32) Your Approach Is Important, Ask The Right Way. 155

33) Let Your Wants Be What You Need. 158

34) The 100-Day Rule To Getting What You Want As A Kid. 160

Part Eight: Question You Have But Never Asked.

Question 1: What Is My Role As A Kid? 166

Question 2: How As A Kid Should I View My Parents?
166

Question 3: Why Should I Respect Limits And Boundaries? 167

Question 4: How Important Is My Past To My Future?
167

Question 5: Is Parental Love Important? 168

Question 6: Why Should I Express My Feelings
Verbally? 168

Question 7: How Do I Express My Feelings Verbally?
169

Question 8: Am I Wrong For Feeling Jealous? 169

Question 9: Am I Wrong For Wanting To Be Like Someone Else? 170

Question 10: How Do My Actions Speak Louder Than
My Words? 170

Question 11: Am I Going To Be Just Like My Parents?
171

Question 12: How Can I Put Myself In Someone Else's Shoes? 171

Question 13: Am I Wrong For Expecting My Parents To Help Me Do Me? 172

Question 14: Why Is It Wrong For Me To Cry? 172

Question 15: Why Do People Say Winning Isn't Everything? 173

Question 16: When People Are Mean To Me, Why Shouldn't I Be Mean Back To Them? 173

Question 17: How Does Helping Other People Help Me To Help Myself? 174

Question 18: Why Should I Learn New Things When It's The Old Things I'm Good At? 174

Question 19: Why Do Parents Say That Whatever Goes Around Always Comes Right Back...?175

Question 21: Why Do Parents Say "Do As I Say And Not As I Do"? 176

Question 23: Why Do Parents Say That "I Brought You Into This World...177

Question 25: Why Do Parents Say That "A Good Friend Is Better Than Pocket Money"? 178

Question 27: Why Do Parents Say That "We Should Share With Those Who Have Never Shared...?" 179

Part Nine: We Really Hate To Say Goodbye.

Conclusion 180

Think BIG!

Remember, to override failure, focus on your success.

Part One:

A Welcome To
The Good And Smart Kids

Think Smart!

If you can accept yourself, no one can ever put you down.

Introduction

Are you, by any chance, tired of being told “no” by your parents when you as a kid want to get something or go somewhere? Do you know how to ask your parents for what you want in a way that works for you every time? Do you know how to negotiate with your parents to get whatever it is that you are after and win? Do you know about the 100-day rule that many parents use to help them know what to buy you and what not to? Do you know how to help your parents, to help you, to do you? Do you know the secret knowledge that grown-ups have, that can only be unlocked by high-level logic, experience and mental growth? Is it just you or do your parents actually show favoritism? How can you as one of your parents' children become their most-favored favorite? It may be clear to you that you have your parents' love, but do you know how to earn your parents' respect and make them really like you? Do you know what the point of getting good grades in school is for you? Do you know what the point of good communication is? Do you know what the point of good grooming and hygiene is? Do you know why good parents want you to have your own mind? Well, if you really want to learn the secrets of how to get what you want from your parents every time and how parents secretly think, then this book 'A-C-T Like A Kid And T-H-I-N-K Like A Parent' is the book for you.

In this book you'll learn some of what parents have learned from years and years of parenting. You'll see some of the things that they've learned that are helping them to become better at parenting. You'll learn how many parents think. You'll learn what hidden forces motivate them as parents. You'll learn what parents really need from you. You'll learn just how differently parents really think than you do. Plus, you'll learn what's behind a parent's parenting skills. You'll learn what goes into understanding parents, how parents are made and why personal boundaries are so important for everybody. You'll learn why good parents like common sense and standards from their children. You'll also learn how to approach your parents the right way and much, much more.

You see, in nature, the roots of the tree are where the tree gets its nourishment and strength. In families, the roots are the parents, grandparents, guardians and care-givers. Until you fully learn the secret knowledge of adults, their jobs are basically to bring good stuff closer to you and to keep bad stuff far away from you. And until you are able to see and learn this secret knowledge for yourself, sadly, this means that you will have to hear the word "no" a lot of the time without seeing why. This is done to protect you as you are growing up. This book is made to help you as a kid to learn, grow, use and see what you cannot yet, see on your own. You see, we understand this as grown-ups, because we were and are all still considered children to and under our own parents. It doesn't matter how old we get they are still over us. They have been alive much longer than us. Many of us as adults can even remember ourselves, as big and little kids, asking for toys and things from the local store. We all remember asking to go someplace or to do something that we thought would be really interesting, exciting and fun. This, to us, seemed to be everything that we would need to be happy in life, and seemed like a world of opportunity at that very moment. Our parents' response, more often than not, was "no" or "I'll think about it". It's funny because that "I'll think about it" often turned out to be "no" too. As children, we couldn't figure out why, much less understand why, their answers as parents always seemed to be "no". For the longest time, many of us as kids actually thought that our parents hated us and that they were just out to make life miserable and plain old boring for us. Now that we've grown up and have learned so much about the world and the way it works, we realize that what we were feeling and thinking was so very far from the truth. It is a truth that has replaced what we had imagined about them as parents all along. A truth that, while always in plain sight, cannot be seen by a kid or child until they have learned, grown and developed enough to be able to fully see and use the secret knowledge of adults that was once invisible to them, on their own. A secret knowledge that hides in plain sight. A knowledge about life that adults have, that kids and children do not. Kids know what they know about life. Kids also don't know what they don't know about life. And their parents do know what they don't know about life. Their parents already know and have that secret knowledge about life. The parents already know what the kids don't know about life that their kids can't even see. This is why it has been called the secret knowledge of adults. If their kids could easily see it, it wouldn't be considered a secret and parents wouldn't be so necessary. This is one of the main reasons why all kids and children must have adult parents, guardians or caregivers.

The main goal of this book 'A-C-T Like A Kid And T-H-I-N-K Like A Parent' is to help you as a kid, old or young, to understand, as well as comprehend, why your parents are so nosy. This book also covers why your parents set so many rules and boundaries, and why good parents have to say “no” so often. This book will also help you to see and realize that all of this is being done out of a sense of parental love, safety and responsibility. It is not at all as it appears, a mission to ruin the fun in your life.

You see, from the moment you entered their lives, your parents, guardians and caregivers have gained the job and responsibility of and for making good of your future. It's your parents' job and responsibility, to make sure that you grow up into an adult who is fully equipped and prepared to live out your dreams, destiny and purpose while doing good things in, to and for society. This is a big and heavy responsibility for your parents to take on, carry and handle.

This book will help you as a kid to make sense of your parents parenting skills. This book will help you to get some basic understanding and comprehension of what it is like to be a parent, and hopefully show you why it is never a good idea to resist, challenge or go against the good teachings of your parents and their deeper wisdom.

Your good parents want you to be happy, but not at the risk of losing you. They are trying to protect your safety, your health or your future chances to grow up and do great things.

The more you learn about how good parents think as a whole, the better you can apply what you've learned to make good choices in your own life. The better you can apply what you've learned to yourself, the better you will get along with your parents. The better you get along with your parents, the more you get what you really and truly want. The more you get what you really and truly want, the more happy and satisfied you are. And the more happy you are, the happier your parents will be with and for you. Eventually, if you are smart enough, you will realize that safe boundaries are healthy for you. You'll realize that your parents saying "no" sometimes is an acceptable and sometimes necessary way to protect you. It is an important part of how they keep you safe, and love you as good parents should. You'll see how good communication, both verbal and non-verbal, is very important in all of your present and future relationships.

The goal of this book is to help you, as a child, to more easily get what you want and need from your parents, and to understand why they sometimes, as caring parents, have to say "yes" and sometimes say "no".